Grand Ledge pastor delivers Senate invocation

Lansing — The Rev. Molly Turner, pastor of Grand Ledge First United Methodist Church, gave the invocation to open the March 3 session of the Michigan Senate at the invitation of Sen. Patty Birkholz, R-Saugatuck Twp.

In her opening statement, Turner asked for guidance for the Senators as they make daily budget decisions, decisions which affect the education of children, youth, and young adults, and decisions which affect the safety of all persons seeking a just and righteous world.

A downloadable photograph of Turner delivering the invocation is available on the Senate Majority Photowire at: <http://www.senate.michigan.gov/gop/photowire/Index.htm>.
